AFTERWORDS

I'm late (again), but I shouldn't be too busy next week (fingers crossed). Anyways...please stay around for the next chapter as well!! We're finally getting some action from Shirou and Sakuto 'jowo!'

Shirou asks Sakuto if he's buying "ysake sake," which translates to sake (rice wine) that you drink when you're depressed. I translated it to "drinking your sorrows away" (=w=)b
